Welcome to the 2015-16 Season of JCM.

We have a fanstastic season planned! Highlights include our distinguished master class series featuring Margaret Batjer, Andrew Cook and Robert Demaine; our annual retreat to Idyllwild; and, our Honors Tour to Boston & New York in the spring.

Students: We hope you are enjoying learning your new pieces and have scheduled your first rehearsal. Please remember to confirm the repertoire assignment with your private teachers and ask for help with bowings, fingerings, etc. If you have any concerns, remember your JCM directors are here to help!

JCM Student Service Alliance

JCMSSA is an outreach organization that gives JCM students opportunities to serve their communities through their musical talents. Projects include performing and helping at retirement home events and volunteering at JCM recitals. All volunteers are awarded with service hours for their participation and efforts (five hours are awarded for senior home events) Please email any inquiries to JCMSSA Coordinator Lauren Hong.

Debut Artists

Last season, our Debut Artists were given the incredible opportunity to create their own music videos. After attending a talk with Anderson & Roe Piano Duo, who spoke in depth about the process of producing and recording music videos, our young artists were given the freedom to script and film their concepts. This month we feature the Stravinsky Duo, Yoko Rosenbaum and Nicholas Mendez.

Kids vs Monsters

Last season, JCM students were given the incredible opportunity to record the original score for the feature film Kids vs Monsters.

If you haven't yet seen it, the film is now available to enjoy On Demand or Digital HD.
