Debut Artists

This year, our Debut Artists were given the incredible opportunity to create their own music videos. After attending a talk with Anderson & Roe Piano Duo, who spoke in depth about the process of producing and recording music videos, our young artists were given the freedom to script, film and edit their concepts. Here we present Incendium Quartet: Geneva Lewis (Violin), Mei Zhan (Violin), Atticus Mellor-Goldman (Cello) and Emma Wernig (Viola).
Camera: Bassem Wahbi - Editing: Emma Wernig

Introducing Chamber Music Connect

"Chamber Music has been an incredible way for me personally to connect with amazing colleagues and friends. When I finished graduate school, I was completely unsure about how to get involved in the music community. My hope is that through CMC, there is a network for people to meet and support one another, from professionals to enthusiasts. We will encourage one another to keep striving and loving our music- and create more and more opportunities for both adults and students to study, perform, and grow artistically.

Please let all of the musicians in your life know about Chamber Music Connect- we would love to create opportunities for them to perform in concerts, soirees, workshops, and more...!"

~ Dr. Susan Boettger; Executive Director, JCM
